Cardinal Farley Performs
Ceremony in St. Patrick's Cathedral.

BRIDAL PAIR BLESSED

Reception and Breakfast Follow in Home of the Bride's Father, James Butler.

Miss Genevieve Butler, daughter of James Butler, was married to Walter Elliot Travers in St. Patrick's Cathedral yesterday morning in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The wedding ceremony was performed by Cardinal Farley and following it was a low nuptial mass celebrated by the Rev. Dr. Guynn, rector of the cathedral. After a trip through New York City, the bride and groom will be in the city during the wedding.

In the church during the wedding service, the distinguished clergymen, among them Bishop Hayes and Mrs. Mooney and Lavelle. The Rev. John Byrne, of the cathedral, acted as master of ceremonies. The church was decorated with palms, Easter lilies and marguerites and along the walls of the main aisle were fastened clusters of Easter lilies.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a gown of soft white satin draped in simple lines and made with a high collar and long train. Her veil of Brussels net, which fell almost the entire length of the train, was fastened over the collar by a wide band of lace and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids.

Mrs. D. Philip MacGuire, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a costume of dark blue chiffon and a yellow sash. The bridesmaids were Misses Mary, Byron, Creamer, Miss Elsie Kennedy, Miss Tamara Pannick of this city and Miss Helen Johnson of Baltimore. They all wore costumes of yellow and blue and carried bouquets of yellow and white flowers.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S CORNERSTONE LAID

Bishop Greer Officiates at Ceremony Despite Rain—
Patriotic Note Sounded.

Bishop Greer braved the weather yesterday afternoon and laid the cornerstone of the new St. Bartholomew's Church, at Park avenue and Fifty-first street. About 300 members of the parish were present. The service was cut short by omission of the Bible lesson and some of the prayers, owing to the rain.

"The world never witnessed such changes as are now taking place," said Bishop Greer in his brief address, "and the changes are taking place so rapidly as to be almost beyond our comprehension. The changes are taking place so rapidly as to be almost beyond our comprehension. The changes are taking place so rapidly as to be almost beyond our comprehension."

On the platform with the rector, the Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks, who read the first prayer, vestrymen, including Henry Lewis Morris, David H. Greer, Rev. Charles Lewis Slater and Rev. Endicott Peabody, at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Helen Leigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Hunt, to Francis Bayard River.

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD.

FRENCH THEATRE IS PLANNED.

Jacques Copeau Chosen to Manage
Garick Enterprise.

The board of directors of the Theatre Francaise des Etats-Unis, including many prominent men, announced yesterday that a permanent French Theatre would be established in this city to take the place of the present Theatre Francaise des Etats-Unis, which will go out of existence. The Garick Theatre has been selected as the playhouse and will be the new French Theatre under a lease for a term of several years.

The directors have retained Jacques Copeau, director and founder of the noted Theatre du Vieux Colombier in Paris, to assume the management of the enterprise. Lucien Bonheur's connection with the board of directors has terminated.

H. H. Copeau, who is in this country on a mission for the French Government, will sail for France soon to arrange his affairs there, returning in September with the artists and accessories of his Paris organization. He will then superintend the remodeling of the Garick.

Barrie Plays Postponed.

The opening night for the cycle of plays by Sir James Matthew Barrie, the proceeds of which will be given to the State Women's War Relief by Air Hayman, has been postponed until May 14 because of the delay in arrival of the manuscript of one of the plays, "The Boy in the Dress." The premiere was originally announced for next Monday.
